

HOW TO RUN FOR PUBLIC OFFICE

Would you like to serve in a public office in your local community?

- How do you get started?
- How do you file to run?
- What do you file?
- How do you get volunteers to help?
- How do you raise campaign funds? Report those funds and to whom?
- What are the nuts and bolts of running a successful campaign?

For answers to these and other questions:

- Attend the "Workshop on How to Run for Public Office" sponsored by the League of Women Voters of the Lewisburg Area. Opened to any interested citizens in the greater Susquehanna Valley. Just fill in the attached form.

Workshop will include:

- Running a Successful Campaign
Nate Sorber – Campaign Manager
- Panel of Local Elected Officials
- Informal Workshop with Local Election Officer

Who should attend?

- Potential candidates for the 2007 municipal election and citizens interested in local government for the 2007 municipal election should plan to attend this informative workshop. Note: Positions open in Union County include: District Attorney, County Commissioner, Treasurer, Register and Recorder, County and Local Municipal Auditor, School Director, Township Supervisors, Borough Council Members, Mayors.

When? Saturday January 27, 2007 9:00 A.M. to 12 Noon

Where? Union County Government Center
155 North 15th St. Lewisburg, PA

How Much? A $15.00 fee covers the full cost of the workshop, including registration, continental breakfast, and a workbook of timely information.

To Reserve a Place: Fill out the form or a copy of the form and mail it with a check make out to LWVLA and mail to LWVLA, Box 206, Lewisburg, PA 17837-0206 by Wednesday, January 24, 2007. See information on Web page: <http://pa.lwv.org/lewisburg/>

HOW TO RUN FOR PUBLIC OFFICE Deadline: Wednesday, January 24, 2007

Name (please print) _____

Address _____ Town _____ Zip _____

Phone- Day _____ Evening _____ E-mail _____

Office (s) of interest _____

Special question(s) you would like the workshop to answer: Use back